

III

O then what raptured greetings
 On Canaan's happy shore,
 What knitting severed friendships up,
 Where partings are no more!
 Then eyes with joy shall sparkle,
 That brimmed with tears of late,
 Orphans no longer fatherless,
 Nor widows desolate.

IV

Bring near Thy great salvation,
 Thou Lamb for sinners slain;
 Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
 Then take Thy power and reign;
 Appear, Desire of nations,—
 Thine exiles long for home,—
 Show in the heavens Thy promised sign;
 Thou Prince and Saviour, come. Amen.

Let the People be seated and rise again when the Procession moves up the Aisle

MEMORIAL PROCESSION

When the Procession reaches the Chancel, each Class Representative will contribute to the Memorial Wreath one flower in memory of his deceased classmates. As soon as the Memorial Wreath is completed, it will be presented at the Lord's Table as an offering to the Glory of God and in memory of all sons of Princeton who have died. Then, after a moment of silence, Taps will be played by a single trumpet.

The People will sing

Our fathers' God to Thee
 Author of liberty,
 To Thee we sing:

Long may our land be bright
 With freedom's holy light;
 Protect us by Thy might,
 Great God, our King.

BENEDICTION

RECESSIONAL Hallelujah Chorus from "The Messiah"

HANDEL

All the People will remain standing until the Procession of Class Representatives has left the Chapel

The flowers on the Communion Table are given by the Class of 1937 in memory of deceased class members.
